Died

REPLOGLE.—On the 25th of January we were called to conduct the funeral services of sister D. M. Replogle who departed this life on the 23, after a somewhat lingering illness. Sister Replogle lived 64 years 7 months and four days. Reserved and quiet in her demeanor, yet a devoted follower of the Master. She united with the Brethren church in 1884. She leaves her husband and four children to mourn their loss. Yet they mourn, not as those without hope. Her interment took place in Martinsburg. The services were held in the Brethren church, recently dedicated. A large concourse of people attended the services. May our beneficent Father comfort and bless the family. W. L. SPANOGLE.

GRACE—Carl Henry Grace, son of Reuben and Lucy Grace, was born September 1, 1901, died December 27 1901, aged three months and 27 days. Family resides at Fairplay, Bedford Co., Pa. Funeral and burial at Liberty church. Services by the writer, J. R. KELLER.

COY.—Mrs. Solomon Coy at her home in Milford, Ind., Jan. 23, 1902, aged 47 years, eight months and 17 days. She united with the Brethren church at this place Jan. 1901. She was confined to her bed in sickness eleven weeks but waited patiently until the Lord called her to her reward. She died in the faith of her Savior; she leaves a husband, an adopted daughter, Ruthie, one sister and two brothers and many other relatives and friends to mourn her departure. Funeral services were held at the Brethren church Jan. 24, 1902, by brother G. W. Rench.

ETHEL TROUP.

Milford, Ind.

WOLFERD.—On Feb. 4, 1902, Jacob Wolferd aged 59 years, five months and one day. Funeral services at Fair Haven by the writer, WM. KEIFER.

HELMER.—William J. Helmer at his home six miles east of Troy, Miami Co. Ohio, on Feb. 4, 1902, aged 75 years. Brother Helmer united with the German Baptist church in Sept. 1901; altho uniting with the church in the evening of his life, yet I was informed by Elder Henry Gump who attended him in his sickness that he was very devoted and enjoyed the presence of God in a remarkable degree he leaves a wife and eleven children. In his departure the family sustains a great loss, and he will be greatly missed.

SIMON MIKESSELL.

OBER.—Fannie Carper Ober, wife of Christian Ober and daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Carper, February 1, 1902, aged 59 years, nine months and 10 days. She was married to Christian Ober Jan. 31, 1901. One son and two daughters were born to them. They survive her. Rather remarkable that this is the first death in her family, as she is survived by her husband and children; and also in a family of twelve children she is the first one to die; about half the family being older than she. She united with the Brethren church about eleven years ago; and lived a consistent Christian life. She had been afflicted with that dread disease, cancer, for about two and one-half years. On Sunday, Jan. 26, she requested a private communion service in her home; and after our evening services, a number of the members and friends met at her home, and we held a service with her that was much enjoyed by her, and as we administered the communion she said, with tears of rejoicing, "Oh how I love my Savior!" She remarked after the services that her mother just lived one week after receiving the communion on her sick bed; and I realized that her end was near, and she lacked one day of living one week after receiving the communion. The community has lost a kind neighbor; the church a consistent member; the children an affectionate mother; and the husband a loving as well as loved companion. She died at her home near New Enterprise; funeral services at Waterside; interment near Woodbury, Pa. Services by writer assisted by Rev. Houston of the Winebrenarian church. Text, Job 14: 14, first clause. J. R. KELLER.
